

Wet Your Whistle

The Coal Miners Mule

The classic mule. Wheatley Vodka, ginger beer, lime.

“For when you need to lay low but drink tall.”

Speakeasy Sweet Tea

An Appalachian-style spiked tea. Sweet black tea, peach moonshine, mint sprig.

“Served in a mason jar, naturally.”

Rickhouse Blackberry Smash

Rye whiskey, muddled blackberries, lemon, honey syrup, a sprig of rosemary.

“Smuggled in from the backwoods and sweet enough to keep quiet about.”

The Truck Bed Old Fashioned

Benchmark bourbon, brown-sugar simple syrup, black walnut bitters, orange peel.

“As classic as a hidden flask in a boot.”

Rum Runner's Remedy

Dark rum, ginger, molasses, lime, splash of cola.

“Good for what ails ya—especially nosy revenuers.”

Copper Still Lemonade

Corn whiskey, fresh lemonade, lavender bitters.

“Distilled out back—allegedly.”

The “G” Man

Gin, cucumber, basil, tonic.

“A clean drink for the not-so-clean agents trying to shut
the place down.”

Bootleg Barron

Sazerac rye, sweet vermouth, aromatic bitters, orange

“When you know, you know”
